NEW YORK FASHIONS

Pattern For Cutaway Coat Designed by May Mantion.
No. 5807.

Unquestionably cutaway styles are having extended vogue, and very welcome the fact is, for they are jaunty, smart in effect and altogether satisfactory. This coat is one of the simplest and best and is made with the most becoming lines possible. It is adapted alike to the suit and separate coat and is eminently to be desired for both. In this instance it is made of mahogany colored broadcloth, with binding of black silk braid, but while this binding is new and chic, stitched edges are quite correct. The pointed back is novel and desirable whenever it is becoming, but the coat can be made round at that point, and each wearer should choose the style that suits her best. Sleeve length, too, is to be determined by each wearer, both full and three quarter being correct. All reasonable suitings and cloakings are appropriate.

The coat is made with fronts, side fronts, backs, side backs and underarm gores and is finished with regulation collar and lapels. The sleeves are made in two pieces each, with roll over cuffs.

The quantity of material required for the medium size is 4 1/2 yards of 3 1/2 yards of 44 or 45 inch wide, with 6 1/2 yards of braid.

Sizes for a 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inch bust.

Weak Kidneys ALL SAINTS' DAY

Weak Kidneys surely point to weak kidney nerves. The kidneys, like the heart, and the stomach, and their weakness, not in the organ itself, but in the nerves that control and guide and strengthen them. Dr. Shoop's Restorative is a medicine specifically prepared to reach these controlling nerves. To doctor the kidneys alone, is futile. It is a waste of time, and of money as well.

If your back aches or is weak. If the urine is cloudy or discolored, or if you have symptoms of Bright's or other distressing or dangerous kidney disease, try Dr. Shoop's Restorative a month. Tablets or Liquid—and see what it can and will do for you. Druggists recommend and sell.

The next days of note which will be celebrated by the Catholic church will be All Saints' Day, which is the first of November, on which applications are made for the souls of the faithful dead. This day is observed in honor of the departed, and the supreme idea of the day is the life of the blessed in paradise. It is a day on which people should look over the past year and see what they have accomplished with the means that God has given them. This festival was celebrated first in the eastern church as early as the fourth century before it was recognized by the western church, and takes its origin from the conversion of the Pantheon at Rome into a Christian place of worship when it was dedicated by Pope Boniface IV.

The day after All Soul's Day will also be observed. This is a festival peculiar to the Roman church and is celebrated on behalf of the souls who have not yet been given admittance into heaven. The altar in the churches will be draped in black and masses performed.

The first Sunday in December will be the occasion for the forty hours devotion at which time the most solemn requiem services of the year will be celebrated. The first Sunday in December is the beginning of the church year when the services of this order will take place in the Cathedral and then be followed up by all the churches in the diocese each one observing a different Sunday until the devotions have been observed throughout the entire diocese.

The Shopkeeper Talks

You see, Mr. Brown, we can't afford to take any chances on oysters. They are either very good or else they are not fit to eat.

If they are sealshipt, they are fresh and clean, and the most whole some food you can buy. No ice or water has touched them, and no preservative is ever used for them, that we guarantee. We refuse to handle any but Sealshipt oysters because they are the only ones that we know to be beyond question.

They come to us in a white enameled case, that is sealed at the oyster beds. The ice is packed around it on the outside. We will not offer to our customers anything but the best, and that means the Sealshipt every time.
